The program includes a few fun and entertaining physical activities that is in relation on the issue of gender based violence.

We believe that introducing the program to all ages is a massive way to get the entire nation involved and aware on the issue of Violence Against Women and Children.

NRL will continuingly to work together closely with Digicel , BSP, Tonga Leitis Association and the nation's service providers to share awareness and prevention on violence against women and children to both young men and women and adults in the community.

In regards to support, BSP have agreed to showcase 50 NRL Voice Against Violence pamphlets in their office . This is accessible to the community. NRL are also in support of the BSP #BlackThursday FSVAC gender based violence campaign by wearing black every Thursday until the end of 2020.This is the first step of many exciting and upcoming collaboration with Bank Of Pacific.
