2022 INDIGENOUS
ALL-STARS
PAINTING ARTIST BRIEF

Design the 2022 Indigenous All-Stars Team Artwork

The NRL Harvey Norman All-Stars event is a celebration of First Nations excellence on and off the field.

All-Stars is a week-long celebration of Rugby League's commitment to Indigenous Australia and this is YOUR opportunity to get involved.

The Australian Rugby League Indigenous Council (ARLIC) is currently inviting artists from within the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community to become a key part of the 2022 Indigenous All-Stars celebration by submitting a painting design for consideration to be incorporated within the 2022 Indigenous All-Stars merchandise ranges, including the admired Men's and Women's Indigenous All-Stars players jerseys!

DESIGN BRIEF:

- Submissions are to tell the story of the NRL Harvey Norman All-Stars event, the teams participating and most importantly recognise and celebrate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture within the Rugby League community
- It is essential that designs submitted represent all players of both the Men's & Women's Indigenous All-Stars teams
- Design must capture the spirit and passion of the Indigenous All-Stars teams
- All designs must be authentic and original work of the artist submitting the design and must not infringe on the rights of any other party. Submitting artist must be the sole owner of the copyright in the submitted design and indemnifies the Australian Rugby League Commission (ARLC) in relation to any claims made by third parties regarding the submitted design. Should there be a dispute in relation to the copyright in the submitted design, the ARLIC reserves the right to request further information from the artist to determine copyright ownership
- Artist to provide relevant sketches, research and brief background on design inspiration and story at the time of design submission
